

"Although small and modest, the DeMoulin Museum is one that we'll remember long after larger, slicker attractions are forgotten."

Roadside America

The DeMoulin Museum pays tribute to the founders, employees, and unique products of DeMoulin Bros. & Co. Founded in 1892 as a manufacturer of regalia, paraphernalia, and initiation devices for the Modern Woodmen of America fraternal organization, DeMoulin has evolved into the nation's leader in manufacturing marching band uniforms.

This is your opportunity to honor a current or former DeMoulin employee!

You can order a 4" x 8" brick with up to 3 lines of engraving and up to 18 characters per line for only $100.

Here's are examples of text for a brick:

Name Here
Cutting Room
1956-1975

Name Here
Cap & Gown
Love, Grandkids

Name Here
Seamstress
Queen of Sewing

Brick pavers are perfect gifts for Mother's Day, Father's Day, Christmas, Birthday, Retirement, or as a lasting Memorial.

For $100, you can celebrate the work of a DeMoulin employee. Bricks will be displayed in a prominent location in front of the DeMoulin Museum where they can be viewed by visitors from across the United States.

To order your brick, fill out the form on the other side of this brochure and mail to:

DeMoulin Museum
Attn: Brick Program
205 S. Prairie
Greenville, IL 62246

Please make checks payable to:
DeMoulin Museum/BCCF

The DeMoulin Museum is a 501c3 under the Bond County Community Foundation.

www.demoulinmuseum.org (618) 664-4115

The DeMoulin Museum has been featured on the Atlas Obscura and Roadside America websites; TV shows Illinois Stories, Illinois Adventure, Heartland Highways, Show Me St. Louis, and WSEC Channel 20 in Springfield, IL.; and Illinois Farm Bureau's Partners magazine and the Riverfront Times.